Truck Loading/ Unloading System

From diesel oil to fuel oil to LPG and so on; on/offshore portable solutions, 3 to 6 inches Services. WOOJIN has the knowledge, people and facilities to meet your project needs.

WOOJIN are dedicated to understanding the latest standards and technologies to meet modern demands for truck loading systems. This passion of our project's members provides all the necessary functionality to run your operation in the most cost-effective and efficient way.

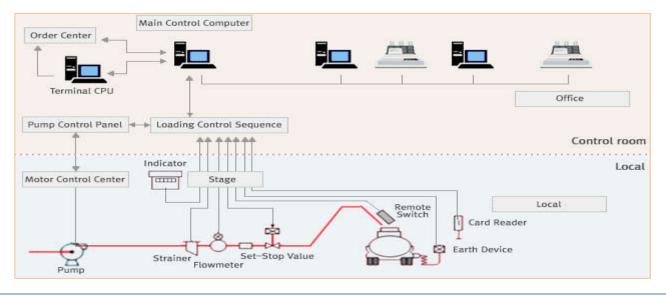

Terminal Automation System (TAS)

Our project team members can be satisfied with today's terminal operation requirements.

Features
- Safe automated operations by use of card-reader or card-less operations
- Automatic E-mail of transactions & reports third party customers receive daily throughput reports and Bills of Lading automatically
- Trip/order driven and/or allocation operations for all modes of distribution
- Automatic end of day reconciliation of actual verses book inventory
- User Configurable Generic Host Interfaces support ERP applications including JD Edwards and SAP for trip/order, transaction, database updates and bulk file downloads
- Audit trail, alarm, event logging and on-demand display of load data and alarm status
- PLC support for tank farm control functions
- Built-in automatic tank gauge system software